ABOUT Apolo

A family business with a long tradition

Always innovating and growing in order to offer high quality products and personalized customer care.

At Congelados Apolo, we are responsible for the import, processing and marketing of frozen products, specializing in marine products such as seafood, octopus, fish and ready-to-eat products.

MISSION

Congelados Apolo aims to supply frozen products at domestic and international level, imported from countries all over the world, processed and prepared in our facilities, guaranteeing their quality and excellence.

VISION

We position ourselves as one of the leading companies in the country for the marketing of prepared seafood, always maintaining the highest quality at the best price.

VALUES

QUALITY

Always rigorous with the quality of the products. We import from the best fishing grounds in the world.

FRESHNESS

Innovating year after year to improve the preparation processes and the marketing of sea products.

PRECIOUS MOMENTS

We believe in great moments, gathered around the table with the family, or with friends, celebrating... We always try to make that day special.

Our facilities have a surface area of over 15,000 m<sup>2</sup>.

The manufacturing and production halls cover 4,000 m<sup>2</sup>, with modern machinery for the preparation of our products and their packaging.

At Apolo Congelados (Apolo Frozen Products) we also have seafood and octopus cookers, enabling us to specialize in the cooking techniques for these products and to offer a product of the highest quality.
